Kym DYBALL

Kym has been a professional horse breaker and trainer for 40 years based in the Somerset Region, South East Queensland.

In addition to Breaking and training, Kym operates the family stud, Centreline Arabians, with husband Karl. Their aim for the stud is to breed beautiful and functional Purebred and Derivate Arabians.

Kym has been competing at the highest of levels now for over 45 years across many breeds and disciplines.

Kym was also fortunate to have competed in everything from Eventing, Endurance and Dressage, just to name a few, as well as all events offered for the Arabian horse.

Kym has amassed numerous Australian Arabian National Championships and State Titles, with her own home bred horses, as well as clients' horses, in both Led and Ridden Events. Kym is incredibly passionate about the Arabian Horse and Promoting their versatility wherever possible. Kym takes great pleasure and pride in supporting and encouraging Youth and Non Professional riders, so they can enjoy and reap the benefits of their Arabians also. Kym has enjoyed competing at the Australian Arabian National Championships for many years as a competitor.
